

Brighton

We were in Brighton on the first morning. It is by the seaside. We had breakfast on the beach and after we visited the Royal Pavilion, then we ate lunch. It was sunny but there was a lot of cold wind. By SM

The royal pavilion is very beautiful from the inside as well as from the outside: the decorations and objects that they keep in the Pavilion are incredible. The front is filled with grass and trees which is pretty to see but what I found really great were little squirrels running past us ON the grass. By GL

We went to visit Brighton, it was beautiful so we saw red telephone booths. These are typical English telephone boxes. There is also a letter box. They were REALLY beautiful. By LB

On the Tuesday morning we visited the city of Brighton. This city is beautiful, it has a lot of colour, it felt so good. The streets, the shops and the monuments are atypical. By EC

Tunbridge wells

On the Wednesday morning, before going to Bodiam castle, we went to Tunbridge wells which is a beautiful old town, we had a guide with us so we could learn more about this place. By CB

We had some free time in a big 3-floor shopping centre. By LF

Cricket session near Brighton

Playing Cricket

On the Thursday morning we got introduced to cricket and we played it during the whole morning. It was really funny and entertaining.by AB

This place is one of my favourite places because I loved playing cricket with my friends. This game is very physical It was great fun and above all very technical. By LF

Bodiam Castle

We visited the castle and did activities in the castle like wearing a medieval disguise :it was great.
By AB

It is in Robertsbridge. We visited Bodiam castle on the Wednesday: Inside only ruins are left. It rained cats and dogs. At the end of the day, everybody was soaking wet. During the night, there was a big storm. By HP

My third favourite place in England was Bodiam castle because I enjoy old medieval castles. By EG

We had some free time to visit Bodiam castle in Robertsbridge. Bodiam Castle was wonderful because it is surrounded by the water, it is gigantic and its architecture is splendid and it possesses a souvenir shop. By EBM

We visited this place in the rain. On the bridge we could see a lot of fish, they were really beautiful. In the castle they explained its story. It was cool because the castle is very old and majestic. By LL

The castle is beautiful not only because it is surrounded by water but it is well - preserved seen from the outside. The activities to do in this castle were fun, you could dress in medieval costumes or throw a ball in a hole to win. The view from the height of the castle is beautiful, you can see almost everything around. By GL

Bodiam Castle is one of my favourite monuments. I really enjoyed visiting it because in France we don't tend to visit this kind of monuments. By EC

The Observatory Science centre

It is in Herstmonceux near Brighton. We visited the Observatory Science Centre on the Thursday. It is one of my favourite experiences because there were so many different interesting activities linked with science. By HP

My second favourite place was The Observatory because we could do a lot of activities about science. The laboratory was interesting because these rooms in the shape of a dome were about space, ADN, running water, pressure and other subjects.

The place also a souvenir shop. By EBM

When we went to the Observatory, we did a lot of activities regarding optical illusion, gravities, waterI really enjoyed them. By AB

We visited the observatory and we did many activities. It was cool because there were a lot of things to do, a lot of experiences to try. My friends liked this place too. It was very beautiful to see that. We visited this place, it was a sunny afternoon. By LL

When we went to the Observatory, we did a lot of activities regarding optical illusion, gravities, waterI really enjoyed them. By AB

London

We visited London, we went past Big Ben. We also saw the London eye, double - deckers and taxis. In the evening we had dinner near Buckingham palace. It was such an experience!

Big Ben

in London

AS we visited London during the last day of our trip, on the Friday, we could see Big Ben which is a really big and beautiful clock. By CB

It is in London, the capital of England. We walked past Big Ben, it is one of my favourite moments because it is a beautiful monument. We visited London on the Friday, it was a nice warm sunny day. By HP

It is my favourite place because I dreamed to visit London. by EG

In the afternoon, we went to see Big Ben, it was a dream to see it in real life, it was beautiful to see this famous English building, it Is a huge building: it was gorgeous! By SM

This monument is my favorite because it's an emblematic place in London. This clock is very big and the sound of the clock is pleasant. By LF

We went in London and, I saw Big Ben. I didn't visit Big Ben but, I could go very close to it. Big Ben was beautiful. By LB

We spent a whole day in London. In the morning we visited an art museum called the Tate Modern and then we picnicked in a small square next to the museum. Finally we saw Big Ben and we stayed an hour in a square near Piccadilly Circus where there were plenty of shops! By LB

Big Ben is a very large tower or rather a clock. It is magnificent seen from afar, personally I think it is a very popular place to visit in England at night because it lights up and becomes wonderful. By GL

*It is really splendid in the sunshine with its just magical golden color. By VV

This monument is my favourite because it's an emblematic place. We walked past it when we were in London.

Big Ben attracts a lot of tourists. It was very busy. By EC

London Eye

The wheel is gigantic and is so beautiful. By SM

*It is the big wheel in the Centre of London. We walked past it and I took photos. It is one of my three favourite places we saw in England because it is magnificent and And stunning. by VV

Street Art
in London

We saw some street art in an old underground station.

*I love this photo because I find it is really impressive to find work like this in a tunnel and the artists are really very talented. By VV

Buckingham Palace

It's an iconic place in London where the Queen stayed. Today, King Charles lives there. We went in the evening and didn't see much. Otherwise the golden statue of Queen Victoria with the fountain was very pretty. By LL

The Tate Modern in London

It is a huge popular museum in London: It is all about contemporary art. You could see different pieces of art like this radio tower. By EBM

Piccadilly Circus

Where we did our shopping in London.

The GLOBE Theatre
